

Stock Counting Franchise for Sale Wellington

Bar-Pro a highly profitable stock counting business serving the hospitality sector. Massively reduce license fee until October 2024

40% off new Licenses available in Wellington.

The Bar-Pro business consists of three key areas :

Get clients.

The sales part; you will need to be able to sell the service to hospitality clients.

Stock Count.

The process part; you will need to perform accurate stock counts of all beverage products on a clients site. Our unique and advanced solutions make this a simple process. Most Stock Counts are completed in 2-4 hours.

Resolution.

The service part; once you find issues that need addressing you will convey this to the clients management team.

The Rewards

Apart from your clients being stoked with your service you also get a fantastic income.

Performing 2 counts a day 5 days a week will generate an income well over $170K.

Business Resources

No need for an Office. All work can be done on site at your client or at your home.

All hardware and software is included in the license price.

Marketing material is provided to help with the sales process.

Full training. This includes one-on-one computer software training, on site stock count training and on-going support.
