Embrace The Rural Lifestyle Rotherham Hotel

With over four decades of dedicated service to the local community, the iconic Rotherham Hotel, established in 1878, is now available for sale. Ideally situated on the State Highway 70 Scenic Route between Hanmer Springs and Kaikoura, it proudly stands as the central hub of the buoyant Amuri dairy basin. This historic establishment seamlessly combines the warmth of a traditional pub and the charm of styled accommodation, offering both hotel rooms and meticulously designed self-contained accommodation.

Pub and Dining Experience:

Full Bar, Restaurant, and Takeaway offerings supporting the community and travellers

Generously proportioned formal dining room (seats up to 20).

Rustic hunting and fishing-themed main bar with own pool table

Attractive function suite with a separate entrance and toilet facilities (seats an additional 30 diners).

Restoration of the historic (1878) Old Stables (2015) now fully licensed

Multiple income sources from contractors, passing trade, campervanners, functions and a loyal local clientele.

Accommodation:

Four stylish guest bedrooms within the Hotel

Seven tidy double cabins (including one ensembles).

Separate shower block, kitchen and laundry.

Beautifully landscaped lawned camping ground with power sites.

Private owners wing within the Hotel

Location:

Charming rural village of Rotherham.

Prime location on State Highway 70 Scenic Route.
