Amazing Kitchen Cabinetry Opportunity - Recoup $315,000 Purchase Price In One Years Trading

A tradesman with kitchen cabinetry experience won't find a better deal - the opportunity to earn your purchase price back in the first year of trading. This well-appointed kitchen cabinetry business made just under $315,000 EBPIDT* in the 2024 year. It delivers a great opportunity for an ambitious tradesman with relevant experience to step into a business that offers a great return on investment.

The business is located in the midst of a busy commercial precinct in West Auckland with a well-equipped showroom and plenty of client carparking. The husband-and-wife team have owned the business for 32 years and have deliberately priced their business at a level which will generate maximum interest. With many repeat clients over 30 years, they are keen to see the results of their hard work benefitting a new entrant to the industry who will continue their well-deserved excellent reputation.

The business offers a great future to an aspiring business owner with cabinetry experience. The vendors are happy to pass on their knowledge, expertise and relationships to a new owner to ensure continued success in the business.
