Queenstown: Luxury Boutique Hotel - Prime Location

This charming European styled boutique hotel commands one of Queenstown's best locations, just minutes from the town offering sweeping views across Queenstown and Lake Wakatipu to the Remarkables Range.

Superb central 10 room boutique hotel, combining both bed & breakfast with genuine New Zealand hospitality, the hotel is the perfect accommodation for vacations, short breaks, ski or family holiday.

Building is just 24 years old with an extensive central heating system upgrade, November 2022, including the installation of a new boiler for an owner's peace of mind. New carpet was put through the units 2020. Rooms feature soft toned European styled decor, carpets and soft furnishings creating a warm and welcoming ambience for the guest's total comfortable stay. All rooms enjoy a stunning view.

The quality of the property is reflected in guests' feedback. The property is consistently rated at the top end of Queenstown hotels by the world's top travel site Trip Advisor.

The current owners each year enjoy the company of repeat visitors from within New Zealand and overseas which have provided some very healthy forward bookings locked in place. Hands on operators will enjoy the day to day experience of meeting and looking after guests from all over the world. With the expected growth in tourism into Queenstown, the future is looking strong.

Owner's accommodation is provided by way of a private two-bedroom apartment which opens out to its own screened off courtyard area.

The lease is favourable, the figures are good and getting better. If you wish to operate at the top end boutique market, then this is a great opportunity to do so.
