15 Years Old Food Importer & Distributor

This food importer and distributor has been stocking the shelves of supermarkets, convenience, and specialty stores for 15 years with globally recognised brands that target clearly defined consumer needs.

It has 4 experienced staff that enable the business to run efficiently for the General manager shareholder.

The business has clearly defined product categories that can be expanded, and stocks over 300 product lines with access to over 15,000 more.

There is the capability to grow this business utilising the existing resources by expanding and diversifying the product range. Alternatively, adding this business to an existing import & distribution business creates instant growth. The direct-to-consumer database is growing, and other sales channels can be built on along with online sales.

One of the current shareholders owns the premises and will renegotiate the lease to suit the new owner or you can relocate the business.
