Resilient - In Demand - Construction Services Biz

*FY2024 Cash Surplus - $620,000.

A great opportunity at a great price with a very healthy pipeline of confirmed work.

This is an enduring, industry leading business which supplies a niche service to the construction industry. In operation since 2005, the business has weathered the ups and downs and successfully continued to be very profitable. With a very strong pipeline of confirmed work, the outlook is positive.

The asking price reflects the 2024 financial year profit result, however, with the cyclical nature of the market which this business operates in, much higher rewards are possible as has been shown in recent previous years. There is every likelihood that a new owner could experience much more profitable years.

Most customers are large, enduring, reliable infrastructure companies who have been in operation for many years. The business employs a few employees with the balance of labour retained as contractors, all very experienced and reliable.

This business will suit people who are practical and who can understand the products and processes of construction and quotation. Experience in the wider building and construction industry would be beneficial.

The business is currently run from the vendor's home. A new owner will need to relocate to a different address with enough space to park a truck and some equipment.

The vendor will ensure a thorough handover, which could include him working for quite some time in a capacity such as a contractor or consultant. Any such agreement will be discussed and negotiated during the sale process.

The asking price includes equipment and stock of approximately $300,000 value.

Asking Price - $1,000,000.
