

AV/Games Hire & Acoustic Panels Business for Sale Auckland

Discover the incredible opportunity to own Ashken's Audio Visual/entertainment hire and acoustic panel business. With endless growth opportunities in events, games, parties, silent discos, cinema at home and more, this niche small business is ripe for expansion.

We have an ever growing list of corporate, education and private clients hiring our services and equipment and in addition, you'll also have the chance to continue providing customers with Ashken's award-winning innovative acoustic panels. Built from the ground up, these acoustic panels are currently found in medical offices, studios and cafes which improve acoustics in any listening space and reduce unwanted echo. Don't miss out on this chance to grow and develop an already successful startup business which includes a van with tow-bar, all stock, IP and an amazing web management platform which is turn key. Expand nationwide or export the acoustic panels to the world! A sales and information document can be requested directly by email: info@ashken.co.nz Take a look at our website offerings and get in touch for more info: www.ashken.co.nz
