Tyre & Wheel Services - Partnership with NZ Automobile Group

Established in 2008, this tyre business has thrived through challenging periods in the economy.

In partnership with a leading NZ Automobile Group, they launched the country's first mobile tyre shop in 2016. With a state-of-the-art workshop with a reliable and dedicated team, they offer excellent services. The sale includes branded vehicles and mobile workshops, making services more accessible for customers and boosting the business's revenue. Future opportunities include expanding the partnership contract across New Zealand, exploring franchising options, and attracting new fleet customers to further grow the business.
