Central Tauranga Childcare Centre, This is a Gem!

This centre is a beautiful example of what early childhood education can be. Attention to detail combined with excellent resources means that this centre is an easy choice for parents and prospective teachers.

Licensed for over 40 children, the centre has an excellent location and has great visual appeal from the road.

The centre is fully managed, shows good occupancy with room to improve, has stable staffing and is currently operating in line with its budget for this financial year.

This centre would suit either a passionate ECE teacher or someone looking to continue running it fully-managed.
