- Prime located on the main street of Hastings
- Servicing Hastings central business district
- Independent fried chicken outlet
- Consistent sales revenue over many years
- Would consider selling the building with the business

The dairy has been owned and operated by the same family for the past 19 years. The shop is on the main street of Hastings CBD and has been trading as a Dairy for many decades so is well known in the district.

Due to the dairy's location it is popular with central office workers, shoppers and inner city residents. Sales of fried chicken and takeaways generates significant income for the business.

The business owner also owns the building and would consider selling the freehold going concern (business, land and building together).

This is an attractive business opportunity that produces a reliable income due to its prime location and has the opportunity to expand services, like sales of coffee.
