

FMCG Food Manufacturing Business for Sale Christchurch

Market Leader in High Growth FMCG Food Sector

This business owns a definite, growing segment in the FMCG market. It has little direct competition and is on a well established, sustaining growth trajectory. Manufacturing, processing and packaging takes place in a purpose-designed South Island facility with an efficient, compact staff team. Raw materials supply is de-risked, sourced across a range of international jurisdictions. The brand is extensively ranged throughout the New Zealand food marketing network.

Opportunity for continuing growth is significant.

The business works very well as a standalone enterprise and would also be an excellent adjunct to an established enterprise with similar distribution characteristics.

The vendor is retiring and will be available to a new owner for good quality, transitional assistance.
