

Spray Painting Service Business for Sale Auckland

Colour Your World Spray Painting Service

This well-reputed spray painting operation is a first-port-of-call supplier to a wide range of trade customers in fit out, furniture and joinery. It works from conveniently located, well equipped premises with a competent, experienced team.

The owner is moving on and will be available to provide a good level of transitional assistance for the purchaser. The business has traded well with sound performance over the past three financial years and this YTD showing growth.

There is significant potential for growth in both volume and market share as the economy responds to recovering customer demand and resumes business as usual.

It's a great opportunity for a practical, organised manager with business development capability or a tradesperson wanting to develop their own business.
