Huge Construction Opportunity

Here is a well-established construction contractor with a qualified team undertaking masonry construction mainly of residential houses - brick, block, Oamaru stone and designer schist. The business operates as a sub-contractor to many building companies and has excellent forward work.

Our Vendor has retirement beckoning after decades in this industry, and ideally this would suit an up-and-coming participant in the industry, to step into such a well-established business. While being a Licensed Building Practitioner would be ideal, it is not necessary for the new owner to have this qualification.

All of the required equipment comes with the business. At present the business operates from the Vendor's property, and a Purchaser will need to establish a new site for the business base.

The opportunity here can't be overstated - take this business on and make money from Day 1. Your future is in your hands! Enquire now to avoid disappointment.
