Physiotherapy Practice

This well-established South Auckland practice is in the proximity of a very good number of referral professionals.

A team of four professionals contributes to the clinic's excellent reputation and there is a very good and growing patient database.

Team includes: four salaried physios and a contract acupuncturist.

The current owner is a qualified physio and is re-locating.

Another physiotherapist returns soon from maternity leave and an additional treatment room has been refurbished to accommodate her.
