High-End Tour Business

A business that has operated for over 20 years.

It has put itself in a niche position where it only caters for high-end clients, which means less tours for more return. The tours are mainly for two people and are often bespoke. In saying that, this year the tours have more frequently been for four people, meaning double the income for the same tour. Half day and full day tours are offered. They will also cater for a family group, in which case they might need to hire a van.

Growth opportunities:

Set up a website and social media presence there is nothing at present.

Operate a second tier of tours that will cater to the cruise ship passengers currently the business is not in this space at all.

Price $195,000 which includes a vehicle.
