This very popular mobile takeaways business has established a reputation for serving delicious Asian Fusion cuisine at locations around Hawkes Bay. Launched in January 2021, the sales revenue continues to grow as loyal repeat customers rave about the food and service on social media.

The mobile kitchen is near new and built to the highest of standards. The owner has been an early adopter of the global trending of Asian Fusion cuisine. The business sale includes recipes and training should the new owner require.

Opportunities abound for quality mobile food service providers for events and functions like weddings and corporate hospitality. The business comes with established locations and regular time slots for providing takeaways. There are also opportunities to identify other locations around Hawkes Bay for providing takeaway services.

This is an attractive business for someone who enjoys preparing food and customer contact. The business produces an attractive income from a loyal and growing customer base and is in a prime position to be expanded.
