Retail Store Under Staff Management $100k Annual Income

Are you tired of working for someone else and want to start your own business but struggling to find a good opportunity or the right products? Here's a great opportunity for you. A well-known international retail brand with branches in many countries around the world, including stores in major shopping centers across New Zealand, offers popular products. The store sells a variety of household items, cosmetics, toys, and other everyday goods, known for their high quality and affordable prices.

The Franchisor is now selling their directly-operated store to owner-operator. The business enjoys its mall location, featuring exquisite decor with an annual turnover of over $600,000. The rent is reasonable with a new lease. and the head office supplies the products, ensuring sufficient inventory without overstocking. With just one person managing the store, you can earn over $100,000 per year.
