

Wholesale Nursery Business for Sale Christchurch

Established Wholesale Nursery with Land & Building

Here is an opportunity to step into a flourishing nursery business with expansive growth potential and well-established supply networks that you can capitalise on.

Established in 1985, Trents Nursery is a reputable, long-standing wholesale supplier of a comprehensive and exclusive range of horticulture and perennial plants to recognised and reputable nationwide retailers. With exclusive licencing to grow sought-after and popular plants including the Carpet Rose and Federation Daisies, and its commitment to cultivating tissue culture plants, known for their superior quality, Trents Nursery has distinguished itself as a trusted, reliable and high-quality supplier of horticulture products.

As the new owner operator you will also have the ability to take with you the knowledgeable and loyal team, with a manager in place who has supported the vendors of this business for 28 years. Utilising the strengths and resources offered by the team of 20, helps to facilitate a smooth transition of ownership, allowing a new owner to hit the ground running, earning revenue from day one.

More business highlights include:

Prime location nearby a dynamic city, with 2 hectares of land available to purchase for you to grow and continue Trents Nursery's operation

A reputable brand with an exceptional network of wholesale clients

Secure contracts with loyal customers and with exclusive licence rights to grow Carpet Roses and Federation Daisies

An opportunity to buy the residential property and land with the business

A team of 20 employees, with a manager of 28 years that can support you as you move into your new role.

An option to have an incredible work life balance, whilst living onsite.

This is an ideal opportunity for a new owner operator looking to have a hands-on role with the business.

The current owners are happy to provide support to a new owner as they transition into their new role to ensure there is a smooth handover and to help maintain business stability. With over 35 years on the market a new owner can feel confident that they are stepping into a rare and exceptional opportunity with strong foundations that can be capitalised on to ensure the business's continued success.
