High-Earning, Well-Established Kiwi Fish & Chip Shop and Fish Monger

Part-Time Owner, Beloved by Community

This is your chance to own a traditional Kiwi fish and chip shop paired with a successful fish monger business in Northland. With an enduring legacy, this beloved establishment thrives year-round by offering both takeaway meals and fresh seafood, two complementary services that balance each other during seasonal highs and lows—ensuring steady revenue throughout the year.

Key Features:

- Outstanding community reputation, with one of the highest Google review ratings in the region.
- High earning potential, with the current owner working part-time and supported by a small, dedicated team.
- The business currently operates 5 days a week, providing excellent growth potential for new ownership to expand to 7 days and further increase profits.
- Complementary services: The takeaway side of the business flourishes during certain periods, while the fish monger side picks up during others, creating stability through seasonal fluctuations.

With its strong local following, excellent reputation, and untapped growth potential, this is a rare opportunity to own a profitable, community-loved business. Whether you wish to run it part-time or scale it further, this business offers the flexibility and stability you're looking for!
