Prime Business Opportunity

Situated in the stunning Coromandel Peninsula, this award-winning home decor business offers not just profitability but also a fantastic lifestyle. This flagship store is renowned for its wide selection, including high quality paints, full window treatments, expansive flooring solutions, and New Zealand's largest array of wallpapers, stocked with essential tools and accessories.

Financially Robust & Expanding: Generating around $600,000 cash surplus per year (average over the last four years), this stable enterprise boasts strong cash flow with significant growth potential. Backed by excellent brand support, new owners will enjoy seamless operations and comprehensive guidance.

Managed Service Option: Operate hands-on or adopt a managed service model for more flexibility and strategic focus.

Mobile Consultation Service: Engage customers with mobile decor consultations, offering expert design advice and on-site installations.

B2B Trade Services: Includes a dedicated trade paint store, catering to professional clients.

Prime Location: Positioned along a prominent main route, this purpose-built store attracts customers from across the region. The surrounding complementary businesses create a vibrant shopping hub, enhancing foot traffic.

Skilled Team & Customer Focus: A knowledgeable team of interior design consultants and skilled installers ensure smooth operations. The welcoming, customer-focused environment is backed by a fully systemised operation, including computerised inventory management for efficient transactions.

Strong Start & Support: Begin with confidence, supported by extensive inventory and loyal customer base. With top-tier franchise support, you'll be well-positioned for ongoing success in this thriving industry.

This is an exceptional opportunity to own a profitable, managed-service-capable business with a bright future!
