We can confidently say that we have never seen a Holiday Park better presented than this multi-award-winning property.

Nestled on just under 4.5 hectares below the breathtaking panorama of towering mountains, magnificent glaciers and lush forests, this park offers a beautifully landscaped environment and plenty of space to stay, just a short distance from the Franz Josef Village.

A full range of accommodation options to suit every need and budget. Excellent infrastructure for the operators. This is a great set up!

The current owners have spared no expense or effort in bringing this property to its very high standard, resulting in excellent financial performance with the promise of more growth to come.

Various accommodation options for the owner operator.

All secured by way of a long-term a registered lease.

Parks of this quality are seldom available and we expect it to be sought after.
