Opportunity to own a successful home based bakery business with established customer base, equipment, recipes, and training

Seize the chance to become the owner of a thriving bakery business known for its unique Middle Eastern breads and products. This business can be operated from your garage, as it currently is, or integrated into your existing bakery or food business, offering significant potential for growth and expansion.

With 7 years of experience, this home-based bakery has established a loyal customer base and consistent sales at the Tauranga Farmers Market. The sale includes all necessary equipment and utensils.

Additionally, you'll receive the well-known business brand and all current established recipes such as French and Turkish breads, wrap, pita, cracker, cake, biscuit, baklava and hummus, along with 2 weeks of full training to ensure a smooth transition.

Don't miss this unique opportunity to own a successful bakery business with a strong foundation and room to grow.
