Why buy this business?

Being your own boss has many advantages. It allows for other activities between ferry runs, and holidays during school holiday season. There is plenty of room for expansion into the tourism sector.

The boat being our workplace allows for appreciation of nature, in a beautiful setting.

If you wished to expand operations, you could also take leisure tours around the harbour. But there are already good financial returns.

The clientele is loyal and appreciative of this essential service, and lasting friendships can be made and enjoyed.

Business includes:

Miss Ida is a kauri plank modernised 1930s displacement launch, surveyed for 60 passengers. A berth is available at the Sulphur Point Marina.

After 35 years of running this business, much good-will has accrued thanks to the hard work of the present owners. Miss Ida Charters has become integral to the Islanders way of life. She is the perfect vessel for this job being well maintained and accommodating.

An operations manual has been created to ensure systems are in place to satisfy all health and safety aspects expected by authorities.

The present owner will be available for as long a handover period as necessary to ensure that the new owner/operator is confident with all aspects of the vessel and services offered. Also he will be able to do relief skippering.
