Beach Location Accommodation Business

We are delighted to present to the market this exceptional accommodation business located in the sought-after sunny Bay of Plenty.

This is a management rights accommodation business of considerable size, scope, and growth potential. The current owners have successfully operated this business for an extended period, ensuring that the new purchaser will inherit a turn-key operation with well-established systems and processes. With a solid, long-term letting pool and strong relationships with the Body Corporate, this business is perfectly positioned for continued success.

In addition to its operational ease, this business provides excellent financial security, offering very good net profitability alongside significant growth opportunities. Its prime location delivers not only a lucrative business but also an enviable lifestyle. Imagine having everything you need within reach - delicious restaurants, cafes, vibrant shopping precincts, and the iconic Bay of Plenty beaches just a stone's throw away.
