Precision Engineering & E-Commerce Ticks All Boxes

Ticks all the boxes in Precision Engineering with E-Commerce

This Hawke's Bay-based precision engineering business offers the perfect blend of advanced manufacturing and modern e-commerce. With strong local demand and a successful international presence, it operates across two complementary revenue streams-servicing a diverse customer base and selling a well-branded product line worldwide.

Why This Business Stands Out:

- * Precision CNC Engineering - Modern machinery ensuring high-quality, efficient production.
- * E-Commerce & Global Reach - Strong online presence and international fulfillment.
- * Two Established Brands - Operating side by side in B2B and B2C markets.
- * Prime Napier Location - Secure lease on a large, well-appointed facility.
- * Strong & Diversified Cash Flow - Stability from multiple revenue streams.
- * Excellent Growth & Profitability - Proven returns with room to scale.
- * Skilled Workforce - Includes an experienced workshop manager and an eCommerce manager.

With a strong foundation, cutting-edge technology, and scalable operations, this business truly ticks all the boxes for a smart acquisition.
