

Unique SaaS Platform Business for Sale New Zealand Anywhere

Proven, Scalable, and Ready to Grow!

This is a rare opportunity to operate a proven SaaS platform designed for SME business consultants, coaches, and advisors across the world. At its peak, this platform generated $36,000/month in recurring revenue with very low overheads and minimal time input. With the right leadership and marketing strategy, it has the potential to grow well beyond this level and can be operated from anywhere in NZ, or the world!

What's Included?

- Powerful Business Consulting Software – A complete SaaS platform built over 19 years, used by 467+ consultants to help 4,000+ businesses improve profit, operations, and growth.
- Scalable Subscription Model – Proven recurring revenue model with potential to scale far beyond past results.
- Comprehensive Training & Resources – Includes marketing tools, sales materials, training content, and operational systems to support and grow the community.

Huge Market Potential

- The demand for business consulting and coaching is stronger than ever as businesses seek expert guidance to survive, improve, and grow.
- The platform is fully digital and can be run from anywhere, allowing you to expand globally without geographical limits.
- No clear market leader is providing gives you a big opportunity. (shortened this to fit within word count)

Who Is This For?

- An entrepreneurial leader ready to rebuild and scale a proven business model.
- A marketer or SaaS operator looking for a high-margin subscription business with a strong foundation.
- A business coach or consultant wanting to create a global consulting network while leveraging existing systems.

This business is not a startup—it has proven success and has already generated significant revenue. However, it will need an astute leader with marketing and growth expertise to rebuild momentum and take it even further.
