Exciting Ingredients Supplies Business

On offer is an established niche business that supplies ingredients for all kinds of crafts, art, hobbies, business, pastimes, and food ingredients. Raw materials for skincare, haircare, soaps and bath bombs are also supplied.

The special niche that this online business occupies is supported with increasing revenues and profitability, with strong potential for further growth.

The premises the business operates from are suited for this operation - all ground level, with different rooms to accommodate different business operations.

For an excellent business for which all of the hard work has been done to get it established, this business is an ideal candidate, which also ticks the boxes for future growth potential. A rare offering to the market, here's your chance!
