Established online gift store for a new owner

The business is an online store established since 2021 that specialises in preserved roses that are transformed into gifts for any type of occasion.

It is our aspiration to bring a memorable gift experience to our customers and believe that we are sharing long lasting love and joy to both the giver and the receiver through our products.

There is an opportunity to use our established platforms to expand the existing product offerings or build an existing business - suitable for a florist or gift enthusiast.

Business Resources

There are no overhead costs as this business is managed online.
