FRESH PRINTS
5c Miro Place, Albany

Fresh Prints - Signage, Design & Print. Profits of $107,000+

This business is ready to be taken back to its glory days (it was once a million $ turnover business)... will you be the one to take it back there?

Fresh Prints was started back in 2013 by Jonny Poi who saw an opportunity and he took it, over the years he has had the enjoyment of building this business with a solid team in behind him, unfortunately Covid didn't help and a personal injury to Jonny has seen the team and annual turnover shrink and the business enter maintenance mode. There are 805 clients on the books, with around 600 being active- with focus & attention on business development, account management and improved staff resourcing, will see this business thrive once again and have profits printing.

Business Highlights

- Working owner profits of $107,000+
- Currently only operating with 2 staff members (1 of those being Jonny)
- Operated from a great premise in Albany, close to the motorway on/off ramp
- Being sold with great equipment in place - replacement value of around $75,000+
- Low overhead costs with contractors used for installation work
- Great relationships in place with agencies and brokers who provide good consistent work
- Currently on a month to month lease. Landlord happy to discuss lease terms with the new incoming owner
- Current staff member is willing to stay on in the business and is skilled across the entire production process from design to installation

Fresh Prints is primed for a comeback, and all it needs is the right person to lead the charge. With the gear, client base, and industry reputation already in place, the runway is clear for lift-off.

If you've got the drive, the vision, and the hunger to grow something great—this is your opportunity to turn a sleeping giant back into a million-dollar machine.
