Homebased Business. 30 Hrs/Week to Earn $100K!

This is a true "Unicorn" business only being offered for sale as the owner wishes to travel overseas.

Consider the facts and benefits of owning this.

- * Home based business that just needs a small shed or single garage size area to do some basic product assembly.
- * Owner only needs very basic "handyman " skills. If you can assemble a basic flat pack you are overqualified!
- * Works 5 days per week, Monday to Friday, with a weekly schedule of around 30 hours at times of your choosing.
- * It is a franchise business and all work flows in from the franchisor's head business.
- * No overheads like rent or wages. Totally run just by the owner.
- * No marketing or sales calls required and very little book work to do.
- * A very low risk business with little, if any, competition for what it does.

The products produced are essential marketing tools for the wide customer base who use them.

A fantastic opportunity awaits someone with practical skills who wants a solid, and reliable, income stream from fairly short hours.
