

Aluminium Garden Edging Distribution Business for Sale NZ Anywhere

For Sale

Location: New Zealand
Asking: $74,000
Type: Negotiable. +GST
Wholesale/Distribution / Home Based

Opportunity to be the sole distributor of aluminium garden edging direct to the wholesale market or through an eCommerce website.

This beautiful, light, tough, easy to install aluminium garden edging is not supplied by anyone else in New Zealand. It is a great opportunity for a new business or perfect for an existing landscaping business or landscape supply business. It can be operated from home and does not require staff. There is an existing customer base, an eCommerce site and, with a new motivated owner, the potential to grow the business through wholesale sales.

Business Resources

No staff required. Can be operated by a single owner. Includes stock in a 20ft container (that would need to be relocated to the new owner), complete with shelving, assembly benches and packing materials. There is an existing eCommerce website, a customer list, and marketing collateral.
