Exclusive Coatings Business With Growth Potential!

Looking for a proven business with strong supplier ties, national reach, and a unique product line? This profitable coatings and finishing supplier offers it all - plus serious potential for expansion.

Established and independently operated, this Nelson-based business has carved out a strong position supplying high-performance coatings to manufacturers, trades, and niche sectors across New Zealand. With exclusive regional distribution rights and national retail approval for a respected industrial coatings brand, the business is backed by robust supplier agreements and a loyal customer base.

Operating from a strategic location, this business benefits from a practical setup, low overheads, and a lean, profitable model. It also manufactures its own high-margin Log Marking Dye - a unique product already generating strong returns in the stevedoring sector, with clear untapped potential in the broader forestry and sawmilling industries.

Business Highlights:

Exclusive regional distribution rights for a top-tier coatings brand

Nationwide online retail capability with untapped digital marketing potential

Proprietary high-margin Log Marking Dye with clear growth avenues

Flexible, low-overhead operation from a strategic Nelson premises

Loyal and specialised customer base with room to grow

*

Scope to expand into new industry verticals and introduce sales support

Well-equipped facility with all operational assets included

Currently run by the sole owner, this is a hands-on opportunity that suits an individual seeking a streamlined, income-generating operation with manageable hours. Alternatively, it's easily scalable with part-time sales support or integration into a larger portfolio.

With a solid foundation, high-margin niche offering, and multiple growth paths, this business is the ideal opportunity for a motivated buyer ready to build on its success. Whether you're after a lifestyle-friendly venture or a strategic investment, this is not an opportunity you want to miss!
